The Lems

Presents 1953-54 in Review

Starring the SENIORS

Staff

Our 1954 Lens staff chose for their theme the production of a movie entitled "1953-54 In Review," starring the seniors. The setting of the movie is South High School. The staff members are the producers, the administration, the directors, and the school activities come to life on film.

Roberta Dworkin, our 1954 yearbook editor, was ably assisted in her work by our superior art editors, Eleanor Brandenberger and Delores Brinkman. Marilyn Kauffman, our literary editor, tailored our copy, while our business manager, Aaron Canowitz, made both ends meet. Jack Phillips, our superman of the sport section, kept our team's records up to date with the help of Benny Wright, John Frank, Bill Keener, Frank Howard, and Melvin Haws. Our other contributing editors were Caryl Coverdale, Mary Lou Clark, Paula Gatewood, Jean Robins, Marlene Swisher, Janis Reese and Jeanne Wilson.

The photography for our yearbook was done by C. G. Howard, who is on the faculty of South, and George Stewart, of F. & R. Lazarus Co.

The art work was done under the supervision of Miss Martha King.

Lester W. Huber has been principal at South for two years, and in that time he has helped many students see life clearly and get the most opportunities out of it. Mr. Huber had much experience as a teacher and principal before coming to South.

Mr. Huber's favorite pastimes are gardening and spending time with his family. In what spare time that he has left, he is a writer. He recently wrote and had published a 54-page booklet entitled "As the Twig Is Bent." The booklet deals with problems that parents have in rearing children. Being a father of three children himself, Mr. Huber is considered an authority on children and young people.

Another of our principal's outside interests is giving speeches on the upbringing of children. He speaks at churches and P. T. A. meetings whenever his schedule permits him.

One of Mr. Huber's important aims is to help students achieve the highest goals in life.

One of the nicest things that we can say about our vice principal, Elsie Grove, is that she really enjoys working with teen-agers, Miss Grove has been the vice principal of South since September, 1947, and prior to that year she was a member of the teaching staff of South.

Her favorite pastimes are gardening and working with flowers. She also spends a great deal of her spare time reading.

When Miss Grove was asked what she enjoyed most about working around students, she replied: "I think it's most interesting to see how many wonderful young people there are and to see what useful citizens they are developing into."

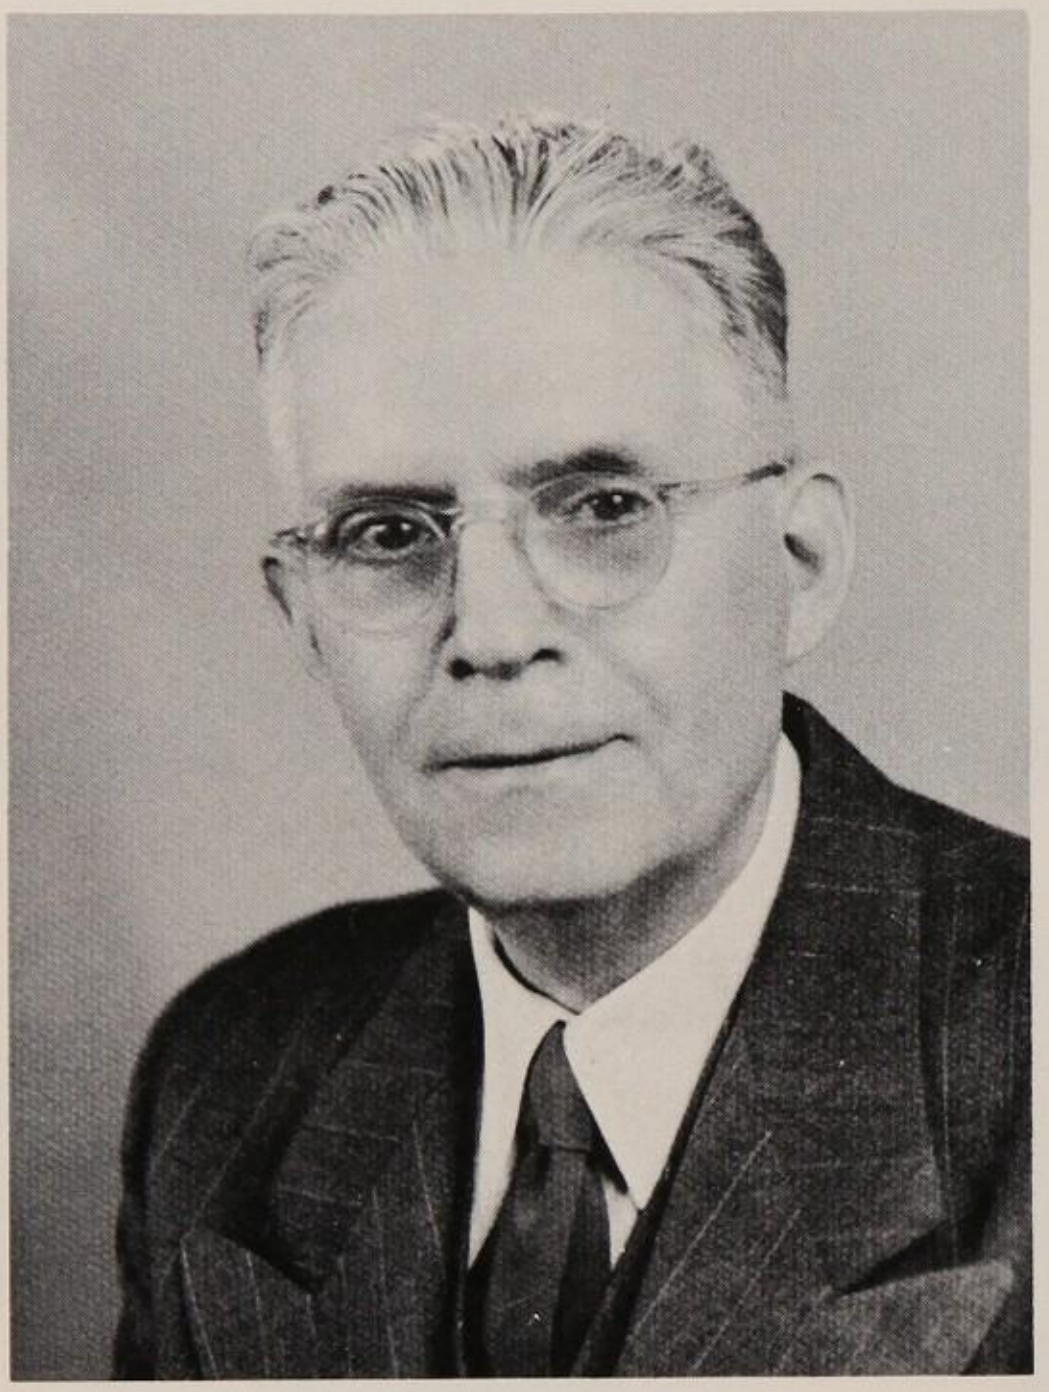
IN MEMORIAM



T. Raymond Stahl

"None knew him but to love him,
None named him but to praise."

This quotation carries the feeling of all who knew T. Raymond Stahl, beloved mechanical drawing teacher at South High School for thirty-five years.

He is remembered by many for his individual and kindly interest in school activities, his keen wit and sense of humor. He is also remembered by his friends to be a man of great versatility.

Muskegon, Michigan, was the place of Mr. Stahl's birth. After graduating from high school in Muskegon, he went on to further his study at Hackley Manual Training School in Muskegon, Carnegie Institute of Technology, University of Wisconsin, Chicago Technology College, Federal School of Designing, in Minneapolis, and he also attended classes at Ohio State University.

Mr. Stahl lived in Columbus until his death on the evening of Dec. 22, 1953. He is survived by his wife and his son and daughter who are both graduates of South High School.

Mr. Stahl loved his work and made it so interesting to his pupils that they were inspired to do their best. In his death South suffered a great loss.

MIDYEAR CLASS OFFICERS

Assuming the leadership of the January, 1954, graduating class was Jim Myers. Jim was a member of the City Championship Baseball Team and made National Honor Society with slightly less than a four point average.

Assisting Jim as vice president was Roberta Rosenaur. Roberta was vice president of Masquers and Philo and was a member of Student Council.

Keeping the books up to date was Helen Bajus' job as secretary of the senior class. Helen was vice president and secretary of Kennel Club and vice president of Philo during '53.

Having the job of collecting all the money was David Steinmetz. David had the honor of having a perfect four point average all through high school and took first place in the city in the State Senior Scholarship Tests.

MIDYEAR ADVISERS

The senior advisers have the job of helping the senior class members solve the problems that they face. They will be remembered by all the seniors for their guidance.

IN MEMORIAM

Barney Close

Barney Close would have graduated with his class of January, 1954, if it were not for an accident at the Pollock Paper Co. that took his life. He died on June 19, 1953.

Barney was a member of the varsity football and basketball team, and he was crowned king of the Backward Ball last year.

'Tis not the length of time that counts the most,
But how he lived those years he spent on earth, the friends he left,
The little ways he had to win our love and leave with us a host of little memories to prize.
His was a gentle nature, warm and kind,
Direct, and winsome in the playful way
He had of making witty quips to make us smile.
That we shall miss him sorely, we will know.
The ties he made among us stronger grow

Midyear Prophecy

The movie camera is focused on City Hospital in Columbus, Ohio, 1964. My photographer and I were just called to the hospital because Donna Joiner, the star of the Thompson (Jack) and Thompson (Jim) Motion Picture Studio, has injured her leg while shooting a film. The title of her new movie is "The Big Squeeze," which was written by Rudy Raduegge. Donna's doctor is Jim Myers, the bone specialist, who is assisted in his work by the registered nurses, Barbara Canter and Lola Oeffler.

As we entered the hospital and looked down the hall, we saw Kathy Reiss and Joyce Buchanan scrubbing and waxing the floors of a complete ward. This was their punishment for neglecting to perform their duties.

Passing them, we then approached the hospital kitchen where we saw Etna Schumm preparing dinner from a newly-published recipe book, "Delightful Ways to Prepare Dinner," which was written by the home economist, Orville Jarrell. Phil Zauderer and Wayne Young were cleaning the pots and pans.

As we happened to glance out of the window, we saw Charles Blizzard and Lee Salyer pulling Helen Bajus out of the cement where she had just been asked by Mayor Dean Stavrides to make a footprint, since she was the founder of the hospital.

While looking over the crowd that had gathered to see the hospital dedication, we saw Ronald Horcher who was now the Governor of Ohio, Pete Giddens, superintendent of the Boys' Industrial School in Lancaster, and Annette Woodward who is now playing first violin in the New York Symphony Orchestra.

As we proceeded down the corridor on our way to Donna's room, we passed the recreation room. We decided to go in and see if we knew anyone in there. We then saw Bob Huskey who was recuperating after spraining his wrist while playing the drums. He has his own band now and they travel all over the U.S. Joe Piccione is also a member of his group. They recently completed a tour which took them all the way to Los Angeles, California, where they performed at the McGory (Susan) Jazz Theatre. Bob told us that Mary Eichenberger and Roberta Rosenauer are now very famous cover girls on the coast. They are graduates of the DeWitt (Fred) Modeling School.

After we left the recreation room, we proceeded on our way to Donna's room. My photographer, Dick Byrd, took some pictures of her to show in the local movie houses. She told us that George Cook was working at the movie studio as prop man and Frank Reeves was sports director.

After leaving Donna's room we were assigned to cover the socialite wedding of Pat Lahey and Howard Kimberly. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. David Steinmetz, who had completed his studies to be a minister in half the time that it usually takes. Some of guests at the wedding included Jim Wonder, a movie director, Fred Smith, now the owner of Smith's Dry Cleaner's and Shirley Rose who is now a teller at the Chapman Savings and Trust Bank which is owned and operated by John Chapan. John told us that Barbara Gordon is now working at the Bornstein (Willard) Restaurant and Food Supply Co. Sally Sherman and Gail Binkley are working as clerks in the order department.

Willard Bornstein told us that Bob McLeod has just received a plaque for winning first place in an archery contest. Donna Miller and Nellie Schmitt placed first and second, respectively. The contest was sponsored by the Wesney Manufacturing Co. Marlene Wesney is the founder and president of the company and Margaret Murgatroyed is the first vice president.

As we watched the wedding party walk in, we saw that Carla Kuepfer was maid of honor in a stunning Pat Smith original designed by Patricia Smith. The dress was made of ivory satin and lace and had been shipped to Columbus by the Stewart (Bill) Shipping Co. and delivered to the church by the Teal (Dick) Cab Co.

After leaving the wedding my photographer and I proceeded to the sports arena where they were having a basketball game between South and North. This is the first game to be played in the arena which was donated to Columbus by Bob Wagoner, the owner of the Wagoner Dept. Store. The referees of the game were Bill Shinn and Jon Sagester. We also saw our old classmates, Jack Phillips and Ronnie Callander, who now are reporting for the New York Times.

Looking over the spectators we saw Jean Thompson, the world famous bowling champion, and Donna Jackson, who is a police woman in Cleveland, Ohio. Donna told us that Ann Hughes and Jerry Hughes were working as chemical engineers at the Freedman (Morton) Paint Co. Barbara Howell is a secretary at the same company.

While we were still at the restaurant eating, we saw Lucille Cacciatore come in with her campaign manager, Pat Hedegus, Lucille is running for Lt. Gov. of Ohio for the second term. She told us that she had just returned from New York where she appeared on a T. V. program called, "Adults Take A Stand." One of the stewardesses on the plane was Barbara Biete. Lucille saw a talent show while she was in New York and the headliners were Ann Cook, Alice Byrd, and Norma Moore. The Mistress of Ceremonies was Betty Hicks and Millie Claar was the musical director. Pat Norris was also on the program.

After leaving the restaurant we returned to the movie studio. My business manager, Ronnie Basler, told me that the academy award winner, Jim Bope, had called, inviting us to a party for the South High graduating class of Jan.. 1954. The guests of honor were Harold Harris and Charles Case, who had finally graduated from business college.

David Wooley, who is now a chemistry professor at Michigan State University, is flying in on the Case (Charles) Airlines to be able to attend the Alumni banquet.

As I returned to my desk I thought about all the wonderful times we had during our four years at South High School.

Roberta Dworkin

JUNE CLASS OFFICERS

Heading the June graduating class of 1954 was Benny Wright. Benny was very active in sports. In his senior year he was co-captain of our championship basketball team and was one of the high scorers on our team.

Helping Benny in his job was Ann Chamberlain. Ann was head cheerleader and was our 1953 Homecoming Queen.

Having the job of keeping the class books up to date and arranging dates for this and that was the job of Kay Shaulis, senior class secretary. Kay was active in G.A.A. and other school activities.

Gene Dixon, senior treasurer, was kept busy collecting all the money.

After four years of dances, activities, class friends, study, laughter, and tears . . . the senior officers leave South with many memories.

During the year these senior advisers are kept busy helping the seniors iron out many of the problems that they face. They help prepare the seniors for graduation by seeing that they are taking the proper subjects and have enough credits; in other words, they groom them for graduation.

June Prophecy

Dum-de-dum-dum. This is the city, year—1964. My name is Benny J. Wright. I'm a cop. Dum-de-dum-dum.

8:30 A. M.—Arrived at headquarters—met my partner Earl Smith and settled down for a day's work.

8:35—Received a call from switchboard operator, Mary Lou Clark, saying that Judge Richard Garner had invited us to sit in on a court session at 11:30.

8:55—Received a call to check on accident involving 4 hot rods.

9:07—Arrived at the scene of the crime. Arrested 4 offenders, "Dangerous" Dan Dupler, "Reckless" Rich Weiner, Bob "Pickles" Engel, and Phil "Rocket" Wright on offense No. 301—reckless operation. Patrolmen Zeke Zimmer and Johnny Vargo took them to the workhouse.

9:44—Stopped in for breakfast at Langley's Luncheon. Shirley Sherrard took our orders for eggs-a-la-Hochuli, named after Head Chef Don Hochuli, who is assisted by his wife, the former Barbara Robinson. Across from us sat the famous pro-basketball player, "Chico" Howard, with his wife, Anne Marie, son Bevo, and teammates Stan Owens and Quincy Dunn.

10:28—On the street again we were nearly run down by Yummy Man Melvin Haws. He handed me a yummy with his apologies and I found myself staring into the face of Ann Chamberlain smiling from the wrapper. Mel explained that she had just been chosen "Miss Yummy of 1964."

10:31—We ambled past Fritz Frank's Feature House where Rita Harmon and Alan Helm were starring in the picture, "Graduates of 1954," produced by Walter Meyer and directed by Janet Gwynn. The picture was adapted from a book written by Roberta Dworkin.

10:36—A block from the station we ran into Bill Keener who was painting a billboard. He was so excited to see us that he kicked over his bucket of paint manufactured by the Marlene Swisher Paint Co.

10:39—We passed Dixie's Super Mkt. owned by Gene Dixon and noticed Betty Coverdale, Laura Rose, Donna Courtney and Shirley Smith punching cash registers made by the Jordan Bros., Clay and Melton.

10:41—We decided to drop in at the corner drugstore to buy the morning paper which is edited by Jean Wilson and Virginia Murray. On page 7, we noticed an article on "Phascinating Physiques," by Marilyn Kauffman. There was also a feature article on Paul Schaible as an American Ambassador to the United Nations. As we were leaving we noticed Barb Rush making sodas for the shoe repairman, Lee Abbitt, and the town undertakers, Alfred Steinwender and Ronnie Roach.

11:00—As we crossed the street Helen Longworth zoomed by in her J. Koterba Cadillac. Following her in a Teeters Taxi driven by Pat Toberan were Senator Don Brining and Congressman Dave Leffler. No sooner had they gone by when the circus parade marched up the street led by the Mayor Jack Kershaw and his wife, Pat (Caine). Following close behind was the circus band with Drum Major Art Castle and Majorettes Lois Robson, Carol Hall, Donna Kirchner, and Pat Holland. We recognized some of our old classmates in the band—Pat Kelley, Jim Bethel, Jean Robbins, Mary Phyl Aleshire, Bill Frase, Joe L. Martin, Joe Schoppelrei, and Ed Burgner. The star of the show, Kay Shaulis, was riding on an elephant assisted by her trainer, Marvin Callif. Dressed as circus clowns were Ed Harbour and Carol Fellure.

11:15—Checked in at the station, picked up some papers from my secretary Barbara Gould and left for court.

11:30—Arrived at the courthouse. Sgt. Paul Barnhill of the police force led us into the courtroom. The case we were to hear was Jim Boso vs. Bev Danison. It seems that Jim took off in a rocket to the moon and blew the roof off Bev's dream house. His Honor Steve Botley was presiding over the case. Bev's lawyer was Tom Cochran and Jim's lawyer was Don Grcic. Donna Canny swore in the witness, Nelson Kuehner, who built the roof of the house. The next three witnesses were the architects, Nancy Vest, Eleanor Brandenberger and Delores Brinkman, who estimated the damage. The only witness for the defense was Model Sally Miller who christened the rocket just before it took off.

The 12 jurors then retired to decide the case—Head Juror, Gloria Wolf, hair designer; Jim Milbourne, farmer; Perry Fisher, radio repairman; Bob Carter, filling station owner; Elaine Nicholson, bat girl for the Cleveland Indians; Betsy Lee, manager of Stertzer's dry cleaners; Charlie Peake, famous track coach; Carol Jackson, housewife; Ed Balmer, radio and T.V. entertainer; Rena Fox, beauty operator; Hervey Williams, manager of Dorsey's Sporting Goods, and Janice Keseg, census taker. The defendant was found guilty and fined $5,000, but as he had not yet returned, the case was dismissed.

1:00—As we left the courtroom, Photographers Eddie Baker, Donna Thompson, Dave Hussey and Tom Trumbull were taking pictures. With them were reporters Paula Gatewood, Doris Grate and Janice Henkleman. Just then Scientists Don and Sanford Bloom passed by with Jeri Stewart and Roberta Blackburn who had just invented some new type of non-smear lipstick.

1:10—As we were entering the station Preacher Jim Chichka shouted a greeting to us. He told us that JoAnn Mayer's Construction Company was building him a new church and that Nancy Feil and Georgean Gray had each contributed $1,000 to the building fund. Co-chairmen of the fund are Vicki Kindelberger and Marilyn O'Brien.

1:30—Entered my office and on my desk found the noon edition of the paper. Turned to the amusement page and found that Jack Allen's band was playing at Barb Davis' Dance Club, with Marianne Hammon and Pat Laycox as featured vocalists. At the bottom of the page I noticed that Becky Weisman and Phil Chamberlain had won academy awards for their parts in Dick Foreman's Broadway play. On the next page the article that caught my eye was about Tom Ogier who had received a medal of bravery for rescuing Dorothy Redfern from a fire. Also mentioned in the article were Head Firechief Ronnie Ward and Firemen Gary Biehl, Leroy Bauer and Bob Finta.

1:43—Laid down the paper, said good-bye to all my fellow workers and decided to call it a day. Dum-de-lum-dum.

"Hear Ye! Hear Ye! The Student Court of South High School is now in session!" The bailiff brings the first defendant into the courtroom. The clerk, Lila Babbert, reads the charge; and chief justice, Lucille Cacciatore, the clerk, and the nine judges ask the defendant questions concerning the wrong he has committed. Then the defendant leaves the room while the court decides his sentence. This is the procedure that the Student Court goes through in trying a case.

The chairmen of the various Student Council activities are chosen from Student Court.

Our official student newspaper, the Optic, is published twelve times a year to make available important news and information to the student body.

Roberta Dworkin headed the Optic during the first semester as editor. Marilyn Kauffman, Virginia Murray, Lee Yahr, Jean Wilson, and Aaron Canowitz worked hard writing up the news on page one. Joyce Buchanan, Kathy Reiss, and Caryl Coverdale wrote the personality sketches on page two. The important club and alumni news on page three were written by Barbara Howell and Jerry Hughes. Ron Callander and Jack Phillips covered the thrilling stories about our Bulldog teams on page four.

Changing staffs in the middle of the year did not affect the publication of the Optic. It continued its tradition of writing all the news of importance in and around South High.

Page editors for second semester included June Early, Paula Gatewood, Jean Robins, Walter Meyer, Benny Wright, Frank Howard, Bill Keener, John Frank, Janice Keseg, Laura Rose, Janis Reese, Sally Miller, Hervey Williams, and Frances Cowan.

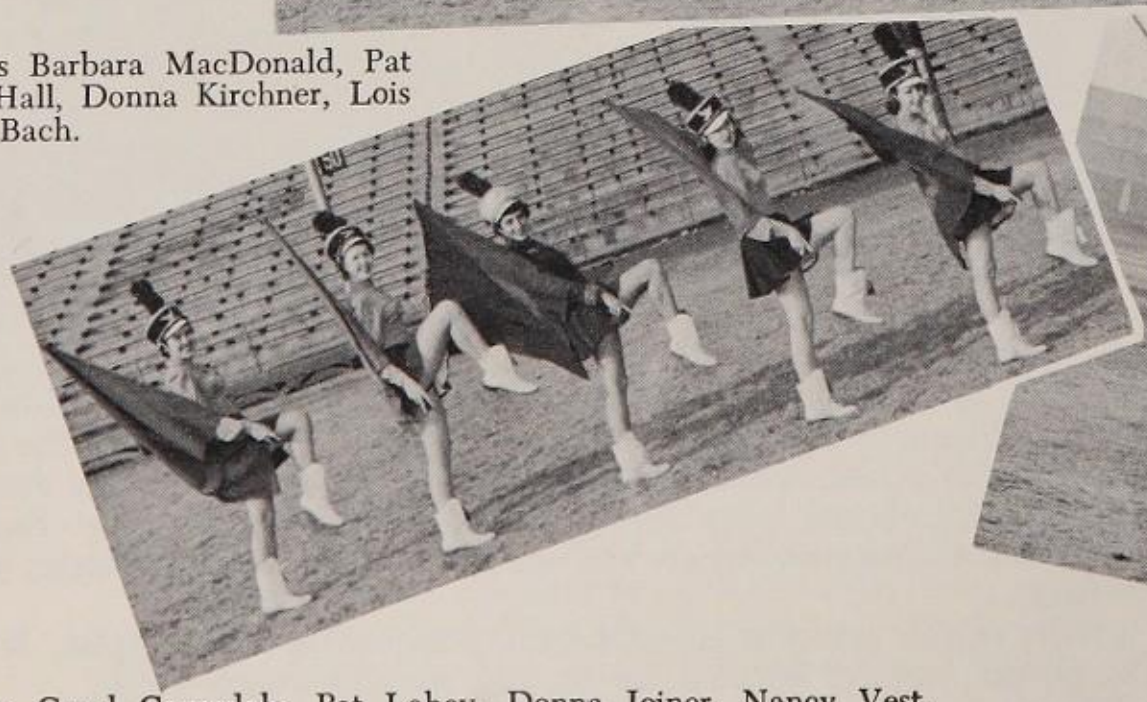
The pep and life around school during the football season wouldn't be the same without the South High School band. When the drums and trumpets sound on the football field, you know that the South band is beginning its season of activities. Pep rallies—football games—Circleville Pumpkin Show — District Basketball Tournament — Zoo parade — the Spring Concert— entries in the District and State Solo and Ensemble Contests—keep the Bulldogs' band in step during the year.

Drum Majorettes Barbara MacDonald, Pat Holland, Carol Hall, Donna Kirchner, Lois Robson, Yvonne Bach.



Flag Swingers Caryl Coverdale, Pat Lahey, Donna Joiner, Nancy Vest, Suzy Webster.

Appreciation of music turns our camera to the South High School Orchestra and the many events around South they help to make a success. Participation in Open House, Dramatics Department plays, Commencements, Baccalaureate Services, Class Day, Pre-Easter Service, Spring Concert, entries in the District and State Solo and Ensemble Contests keep the variety of music in a steady beat.

The acquiring of new choir robes was the highlight for the choir members this year. In 1953 the choir participated in the All-City Choir for the C.O.T.A. Convention at the Coliseum. With the same group of mass choirs, they gave an open Christmas Choral Festival at Central High School. Each individual choir sang two solos, and for an impressive close, the mass choirs sang the "Hallelujah Chorus." Both of these performances were conducted by Mr. Keller, music director of Columbus schools.

On March 14 the Music Directors Guild of which Miss R. Lippincott, director of our choir, is a member, presented a religious program at Capital University. Our choir took part in this program.

Eugene Barban and Marianne Hammon, members of the choir, have received outstanding marks on performances outside of school.

BOOK EXCHANGE CLERKS

English workbook? Movie ticket? Basketball ticket? Lost a pair of gloves and can't find them? The book exchange is the place to go. If you have need of any of these services, smiling capable girls such as Sally Miller and Gloria Wolf will be glad to furnish them for you. One of the most popular places in the cafeteria during the lunch periods is the southeast corner where the book exchange is located.

GUIDANCE HELPERS

Going to college? Having a little trouble deciding what to take when you get there? Worried about your credits? Take your troubles to Mr. Redman, Miss Crist or Mr. Moler. One of them or all of them will be glad to help you out. They delight in being able to smooth out the wrinkles in your future, and, at times, the dark past. Of course all of the work couldn't be done without some mighty fine helpers, and those helpers have been found as can be seen in the picture.

BOOKROOM HELPERS

Books, books, books! Nothing but books from ceiling to floor. If you look in the book room at the start of a new school year, that is what you see. And who is to distribute all of these books and keep the records straight? No one else but Mr. Helmick and his capable assistants. Their work is more or less seasonal with a great rush of work at the beginning and end of each semester and a period of quiet rest in between; however, they are all happy to be able to be of service.

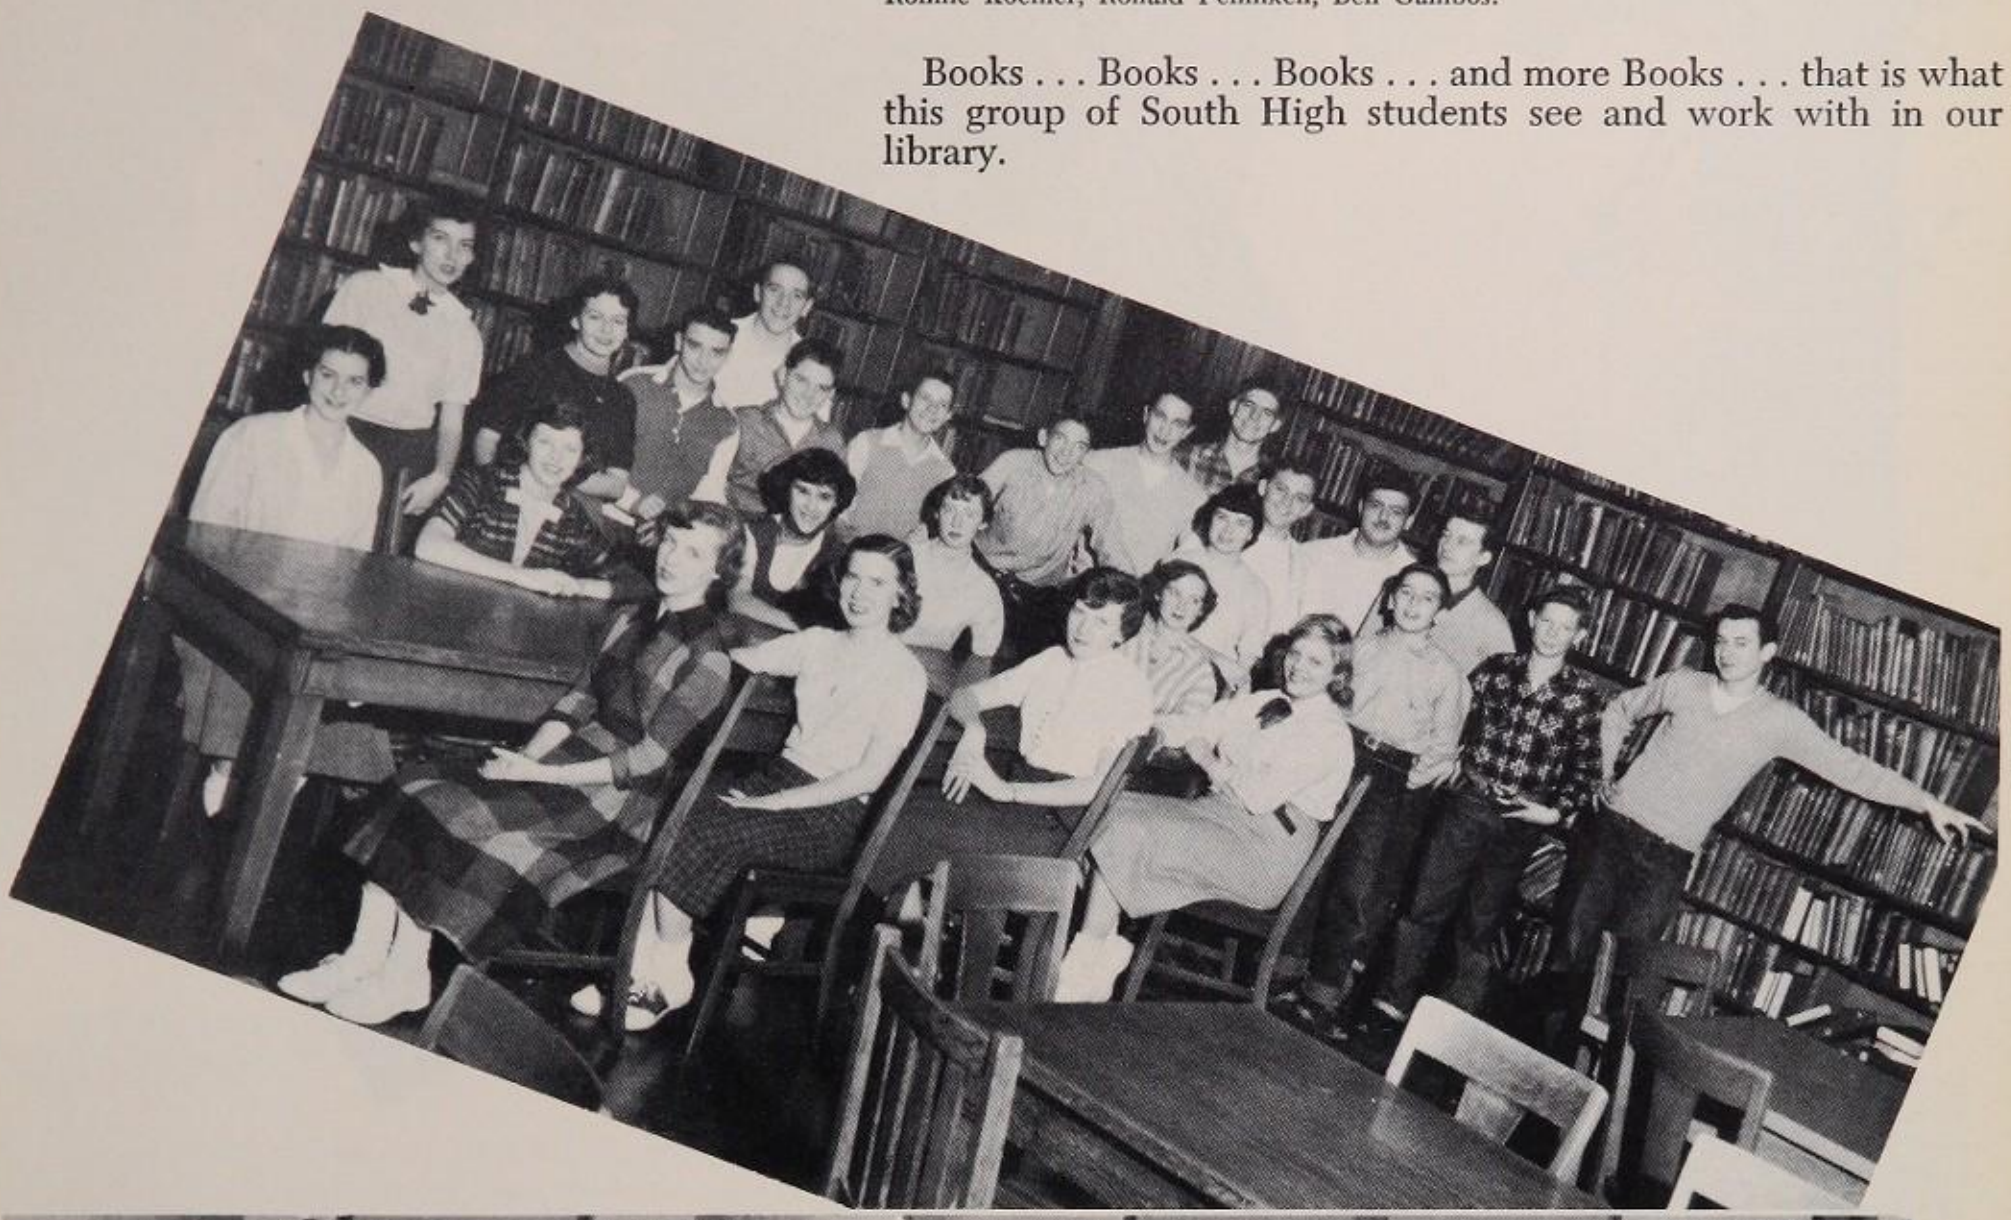
Books . . . Books . . . Books . . . and more Books . . . that is what this group of South High students see and work with in our library.



ATTENDANCE OFFICE HELPERS

If you have ever been to either the girls' or the boys' attendance office, you have probably seen these busy girls trying to keep the attendance in order. It is a big job, but it is well done with the supervision of Miss Titus and Mr. Hoover, "the John Powers of South High" who screens the girls for their jobs.

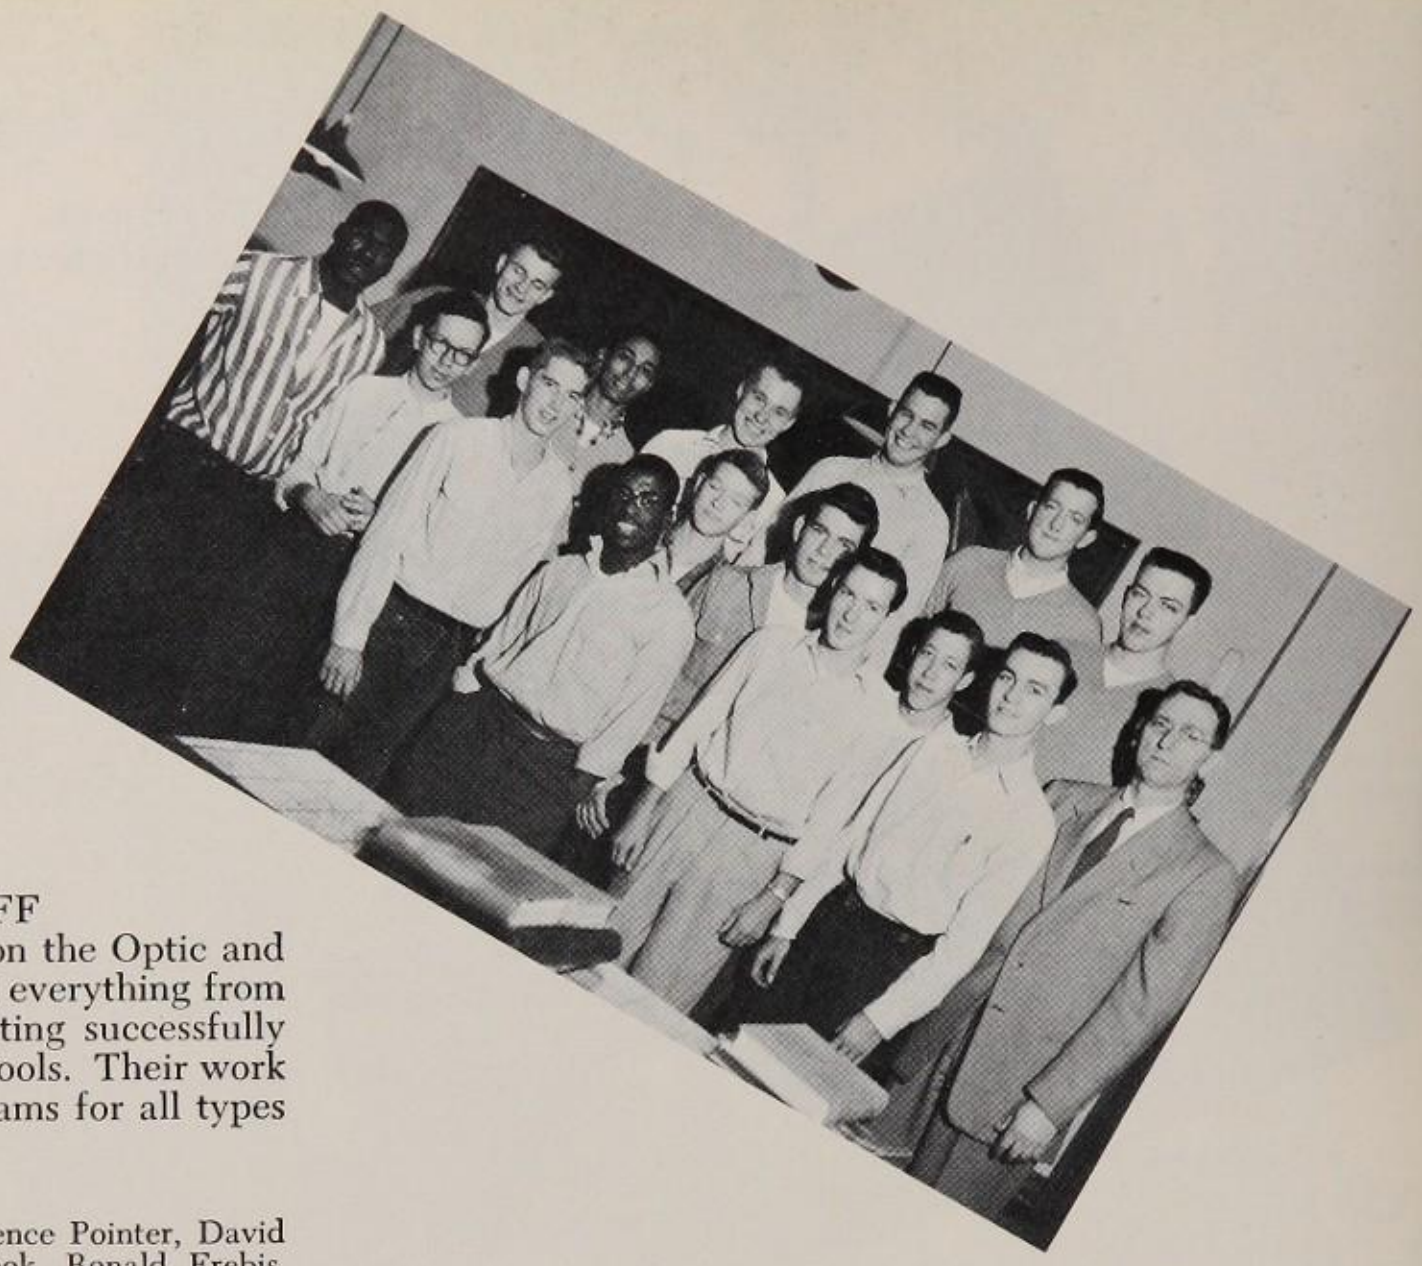
Need a locker permit . . . a class admittance . . . a building exit permit . . . your name on the excused list? This group of girls are just the persons to see for such needs.

These girls have a better than average scholastic record, their attendance is regular, and they are recommended by two teachers in order to be able to work in the office.



PRINTING STAFF

In addition to working hard on the Optic and Lens, the above boys have done everything from printing excuse slips to completing successfully many printing jobs for other schools. Their work also includes printing the programs for all types of occasions around school.

ADVERTISING HEADS

CHEMISTRY ASSISTANTS

These lab assistants under Mr. Davis and Mr. Hoover, responsible for keeping South High's chemistry lab in A-1 condition are, front to back, around the table, Jerry Hughes, Patti Denney, Stewart Ensign, Jim Thompson, Virginia Bates, Lois Bowen, Paula Gatewood, Nancy Thompson, Ann Hughes.

Some of their tasks include checking to see doors are always closed, keeping reagent bottles for chemicals replaced, keeping the lab clean from floor to ceiling and inspecting from time to time to see that each position is kept in order.

JANUARY NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

These members of the National Honor Society are chosen on the basis of scholarship, leadership, service, and character. David Steinmetz, who made a four-point average, ranked first in his class scholastically.

Eileen Menzer smiles happily as she receives the Shriner Award, presented by Principal L. W. Huber, as Mr. Hoover and Bill Shinn look on.

JUNE NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Elaine Nicholson was elected president of the Honor Society, with Paul Schaible as vice president.

"OUR TOWN"

"Take me back up the hill to my grave. But first, wait! Just one more look!" says Emily Webb, who is portrayed by Marlene Swisher, in a dramatic moment of the spring play, "Our Town," presented April 30.

All the hard work that went into this play and the weariness that followed were certainly known by the cast. All the work, however, was at least appreciated at the final curtain call. The applause of the audience was really all the thanks needed by the cast and supporting players to let them know just how much the play was liked by the parents, friends, and students of South High.

STAGE CREW

Cliff Gaver, Ronald Byrd, Adrian Hinson, and Tom Reeves are pictured painting the scenery for a school production.

Hats off to the stage crew. They receive few rewards for performing their tasks so diligently. They do have, though, the personal satisfaction of knowing that they helped to make each play, commencement, or pep rally a success.

There is an honor bestowed upon the stage crew in the form of a key. Very few keys are given as a boy must give outstanding service to receive one.

In the present crew there is only one who has been presented with such a key, Ronald Byrd, a IIA who regs in 312.

SENIOR PLAY

The delightful comedy, "Papa Is All," by Patterson Greene, was the January senior play, which was presented in the auditorium on Friday, November 20.

Jack Sagaster portrayed papa; Dick Byrd, Jack, his son; Susan McGory, Emma; Eileen Menzer, Mrs. Yoder; Joyce Buchanan, mamma; and Bob MacLeod, Brendle, in the play involving a Pennsylvania Dutch family known as the Aukamps. All three acts of the play took place in the Aukamps' farm. The fireworks really started when papa came home and found out that Emma was secretly seeing a surveyor behind papa's back. Then when the family thinks that papa is all (dead), the humor really begins.

The cast did an excellent job of interpreting the Pennsylvania Dutch customs and the dialect, which added much to the humor of the play.

Y-TEENS

RED CROSS CLUB

A club with a heart! This describes well the Red Cross Club of South High. These girls, with the help of Mrs. McFadyen, prepare boxes to send to foreign countries. The Veterans Hospital and the boys at Fort Hayes receive place cards made by these girls. Not enough credit is given to these girls.

HI-Y

The Hi-Y boys have been a valuable asset to South as these boys can be depended on for a great many things. They are closely connected with the Y.M.C.A. and other church groups. They're mighty fine square dancers, too, as the Philo members can tell you.

Hi-Y sponsors "Penny, Apple, and Potato Day." A big part of their program are the basketball games which are played on Wednesday nights during the basketball season.

The chemistry club, organized last year, is composed of boys and girls interested in science. During the semester each member has an opportunity to perform a scientific experiment or to conduct a discussion on some scientific topic. The club also took field trips to Battelle Memorial Institute and other research laboratories in our community.

STYLETTES

The F.T.A. Club sponsored the selling of "Shakeroos" at the first city-league football game. They served the school by assisting in the main office, attendance offices, and guidance room, and helped with the permanent record card pictures, the cards of the T.B. Mobile Unit and served as hostesses for E.I.B. Day.

Homecoming

A COVETED ROLE

Ann Chamberlain

Homecoming Queen

Pretty, petite Ann Chamberlain was crowned the 1953 Football Homecoming Queen at a dance held following the North-South football game on October 29. Ann was chosen as Queen by the student body from six other candidates—Lucille Cacciatore, Donna Canny, Beverly Danison, Janice Keseg, Donna Joiner, and Betsy Lee. She was announced the Queen by Dan Dupler, vice-president of Student Council, at the half-time of the game.

Another homecoming night at South High School will leave fond memories. The movie camera swings around toward snapshots of the events that took place, including the queen candidates entrance on the field immediately before the game, the candidates before the queen was chosen, when Ann was announced the queen, football captain, Frank Reeves, kissing the queen, and the queen and candidates with their escorts.

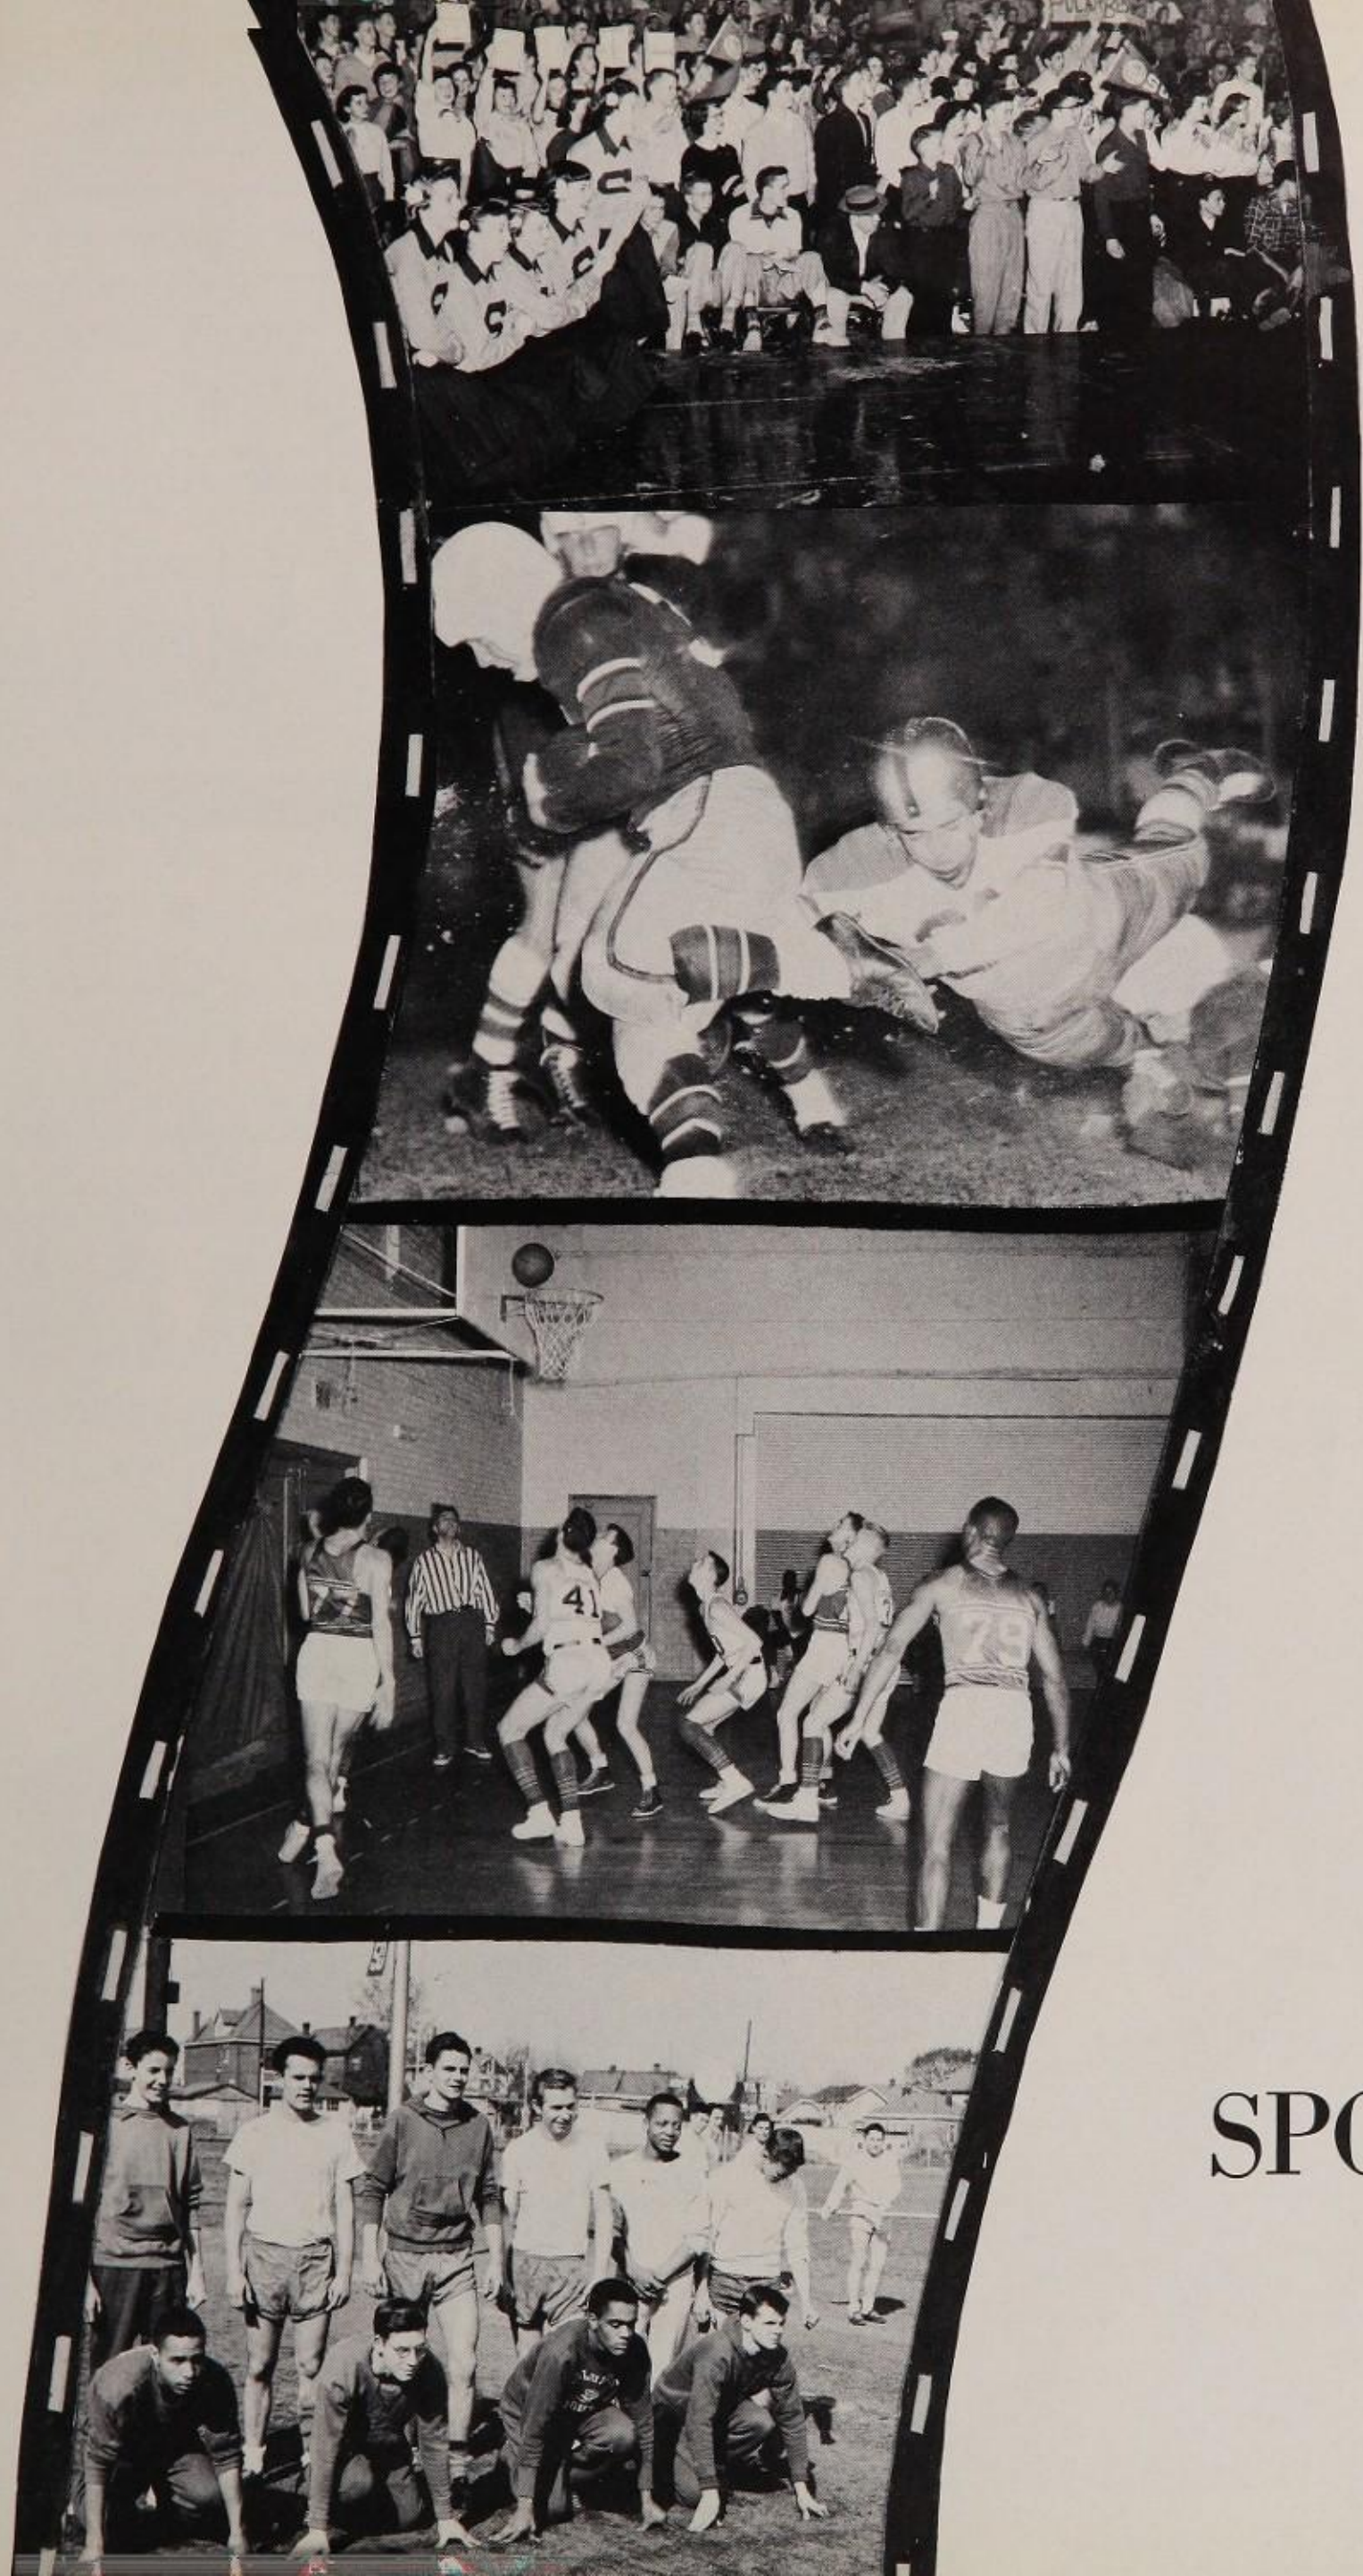
BULLDOGS



SPORTS

PIGSKIN REVIEW

Despite the efforts of their new gridiron coach, Gene Yontz, the Bulldog eleven witnessed a poor season because of lack of experience, depth, and material. Their over-all record was 2 wins and 7 losses.

South opened the season by winning one of their two games of the season by crushing Upper Arlington 21 to 0. Ron Callander and Charlie Peake led the Blue and Gray attack. Bill Shinn also scored.

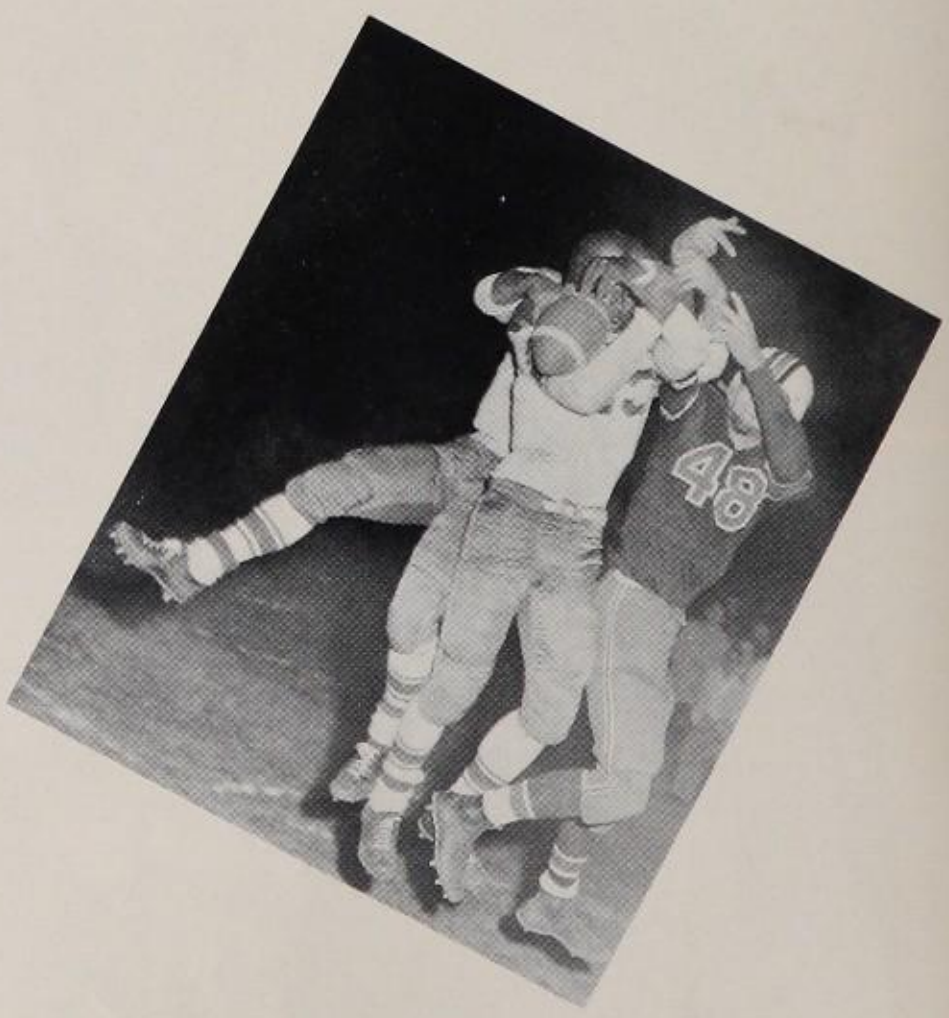
Halfback Charlie Peake was a standout for South, although they were upset by Grandview 14 to 0. South lost to a powerful Toledo Central Catholic Team 27 to 7. Sophomore Ron Wilkey got the only score. In the city league opener, Central's potential city league winners rolled over the Bulldogs, 28-6.

Although the Bulldogs looked very impressive in the first half and lead by a score of 14 to 0, the West Cowboys came from behind to win 19-14. Again Ron Wilkey led the attack by scoring two touchdowns. Aquinas Terriers were too much sa the Bulldogs went down in defeat 19 to 0.

As Homecoming Queen Ann Chamberlain reigned the Bulldogs came through to upset the North Polar Bears 27-14. Charlie Peake starred as usual.

South next traveled to the home of the city champs, Linden McKinley. The upset-minded Bulldogs put up the most vicious fight of the year although they went down to defeat 13-7. Langley scored for South. In the final tilt of the year, South lost to East 13-0.

Charlie Peake and his little brother Dennis received all-city berths. Ron Callander, Dick Shirey, John Frank, and Wilbur Egnew gained honorable mention.



Charlie Peake, Bulldog halfback, attempts an interception of one of Central's aerial passes as Don Harris of Central tries vainly to get his hands on the ball.

CAGERS TAKE STATE RUNNER-UP CHAMPIONSHIP

The South High Bulldogs finished runners-up in the State Basketball Tournament held in Cleveland, Ohio. This was the first time a Bulldog team got to the State finals.

The Bulldogs fell on the short end of a 66-56 score to powerful Hamilton Public in the final game. Alex "Boo" Ellis was the chief menace to the Bulldogs as he rang the bell for 27 markers. The defeat was really blamed on the excessive fouling of the Bulldogs, as Frank Howard, Stan Owens, and jumping jack Sam Pointer fouled out in succession after the 2:50 mark of the fourth quarter.

The Bulldogs gained the berth to the finals by downing Kent Roosevelt, 50-35, in a somewhat dull defensive type of game.

For the finals, Hamilton was favored to win the ballgame although the Bulldogs upset the Big Blue earlier in the season 68-67.

After finishing second in the City League, with North on top, South defeated Newark, Linden, and North, the latter being the "best-played game of the year," to win the District Championship.

Then the Bulldogs traveled to Toledo and defeated Defiance and Toledo Macomber to win the regional tournament, setting the stage for the State finals in Cleveland.

Coach George "Pug" Hood

The Blue and Gray placed three boys on the various All-Tournament, All-State, and City Teams, Capt. Benny Wright, Sam Pointer, and Frank Howard. Sam Pointer was named the most outstanding player in the state tournament by the International News Service.

South enjoyed many fine trips throughout their season, going to Middletown, Zanesville, Mansfield, Toledo, and Cleveland.

For the season as a whole, the Bulldogs compiled 22 wins and 5 losses. The team all year long showed fine sportsmanship and good manners, plus good coaching on the floor.

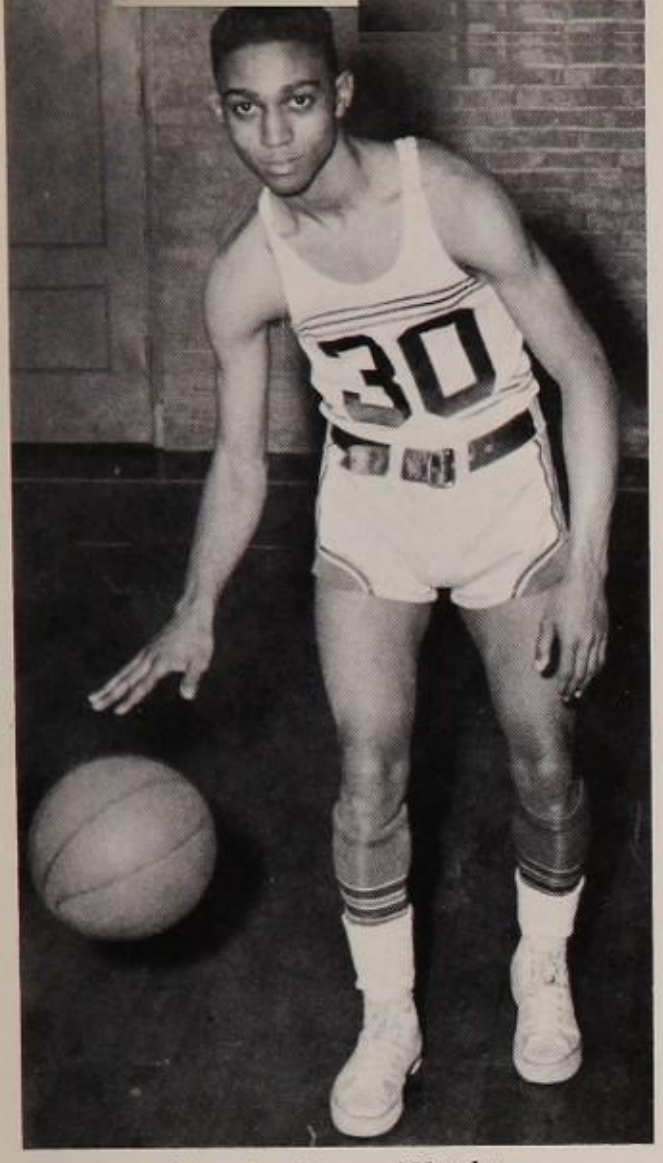
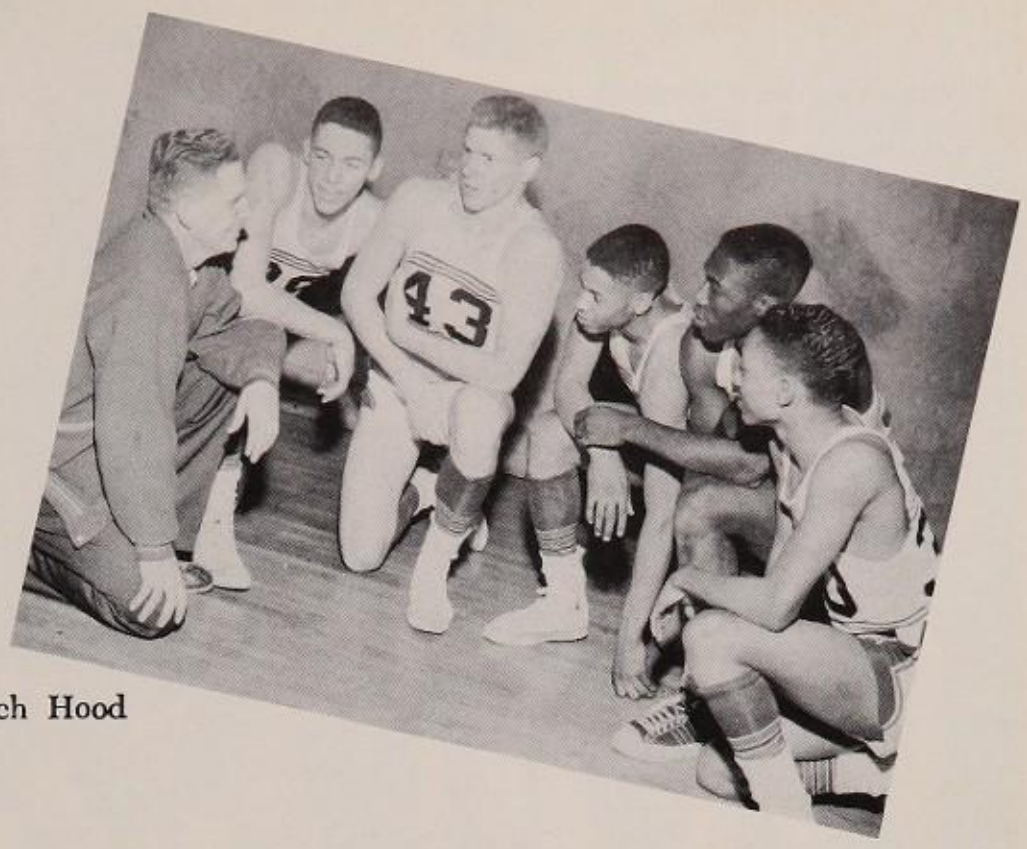
Basketball Grads



Captain Benny Wright



Cagers and Coach Hood

"All good things must come to an end." These could very well be the words of Coach Pug Hood, as he will lose five of his top-notch basketball players via graduation. These fellows will be sorely missed when the 1954-55 season rolls around.

Heading the list of seniors is Captain Benny Wright. Benny has been a member of the varsity for three years, and has played on two championship teams during that time.

Next is George Langley, who didn't see too much action during the regular season but came along brilliantly in some of the anxious moments of the Regionals and State Tournament play.

Then there's Stanley Owens, the big boy who really hit his stride in the finals of the District and helped the Bulldogs down the home stretch, in quest of the State Title.

Quincy "Duce" Dunn, who didn't play last year because of an ankle injury, became very strong and proved to be a vital cog in the Bulldog machine.

Last, but certainly not the least, is big Frank "Chico" Howard. Chico and Clarence Pointer were the 1-2 scoring punch of the Bulldogs. Big Chic holds the all-time District Class A scoring record. Frank has also been an all-city performer for the past two seasons.

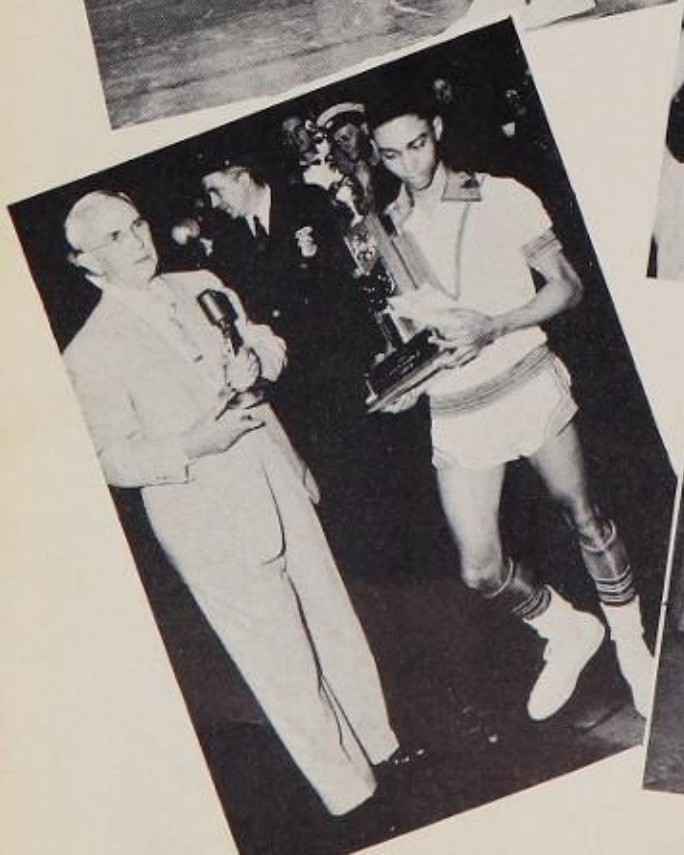
Posing with their trophies for winning the district, regional, and state tournaments are our 1954 South High Basketballers. They are beaming with special pride at the trophy they won for taking the runners-up position at the state finals and the WBNS revolving trophy for the district tournament.

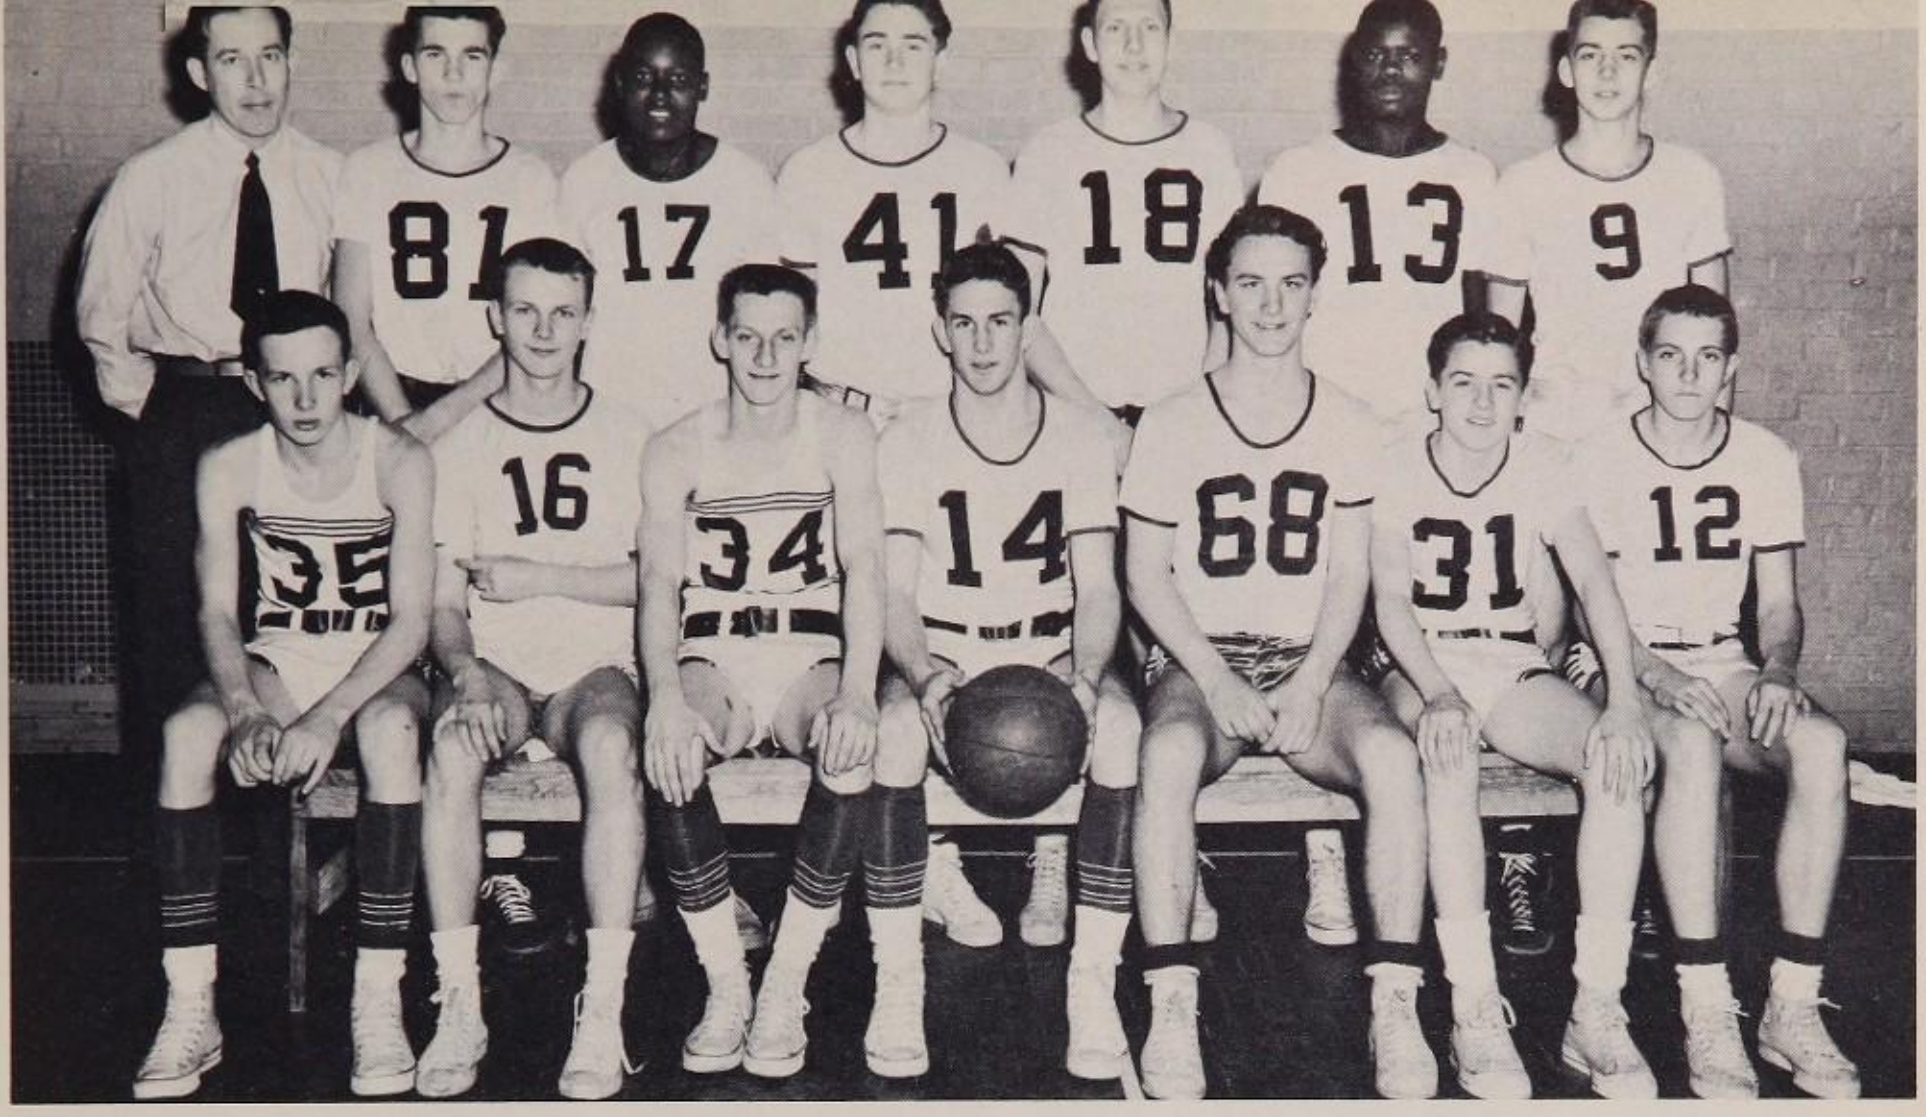
Tournament Scenes



Excitement reigned at South when our Bulldog basketball team went to the district and state tournaments in Toledo and Cleveland. Teachers, students, and alumni piled into trains, buses, and cars to cheer for our Bulldog team as they made their way to the state finals.

Pictured are the players on stage receiving a rousing send-off before leaving for the tournaments. They were soon followed by the students on the buses. The teachers are pictured in the lobby of the Carter Hotel where they met after the game.

At the stadium everyone went wild when South shot for two points in the Kent Roosevelt game. The team played their best and Captain Benny Wright received the trophy that helped bring glory to Old South.



RESERVE BASKETBALL TEAM

RESERVE FOOTBALL TEAM

The reserve football team worked as hard as our varsity team, but received little recognition. The team had a good year, winning three, tying one, and losing two. They won over Linden, East, and Aquinas; tied West; and lost to Central and North.

Seven girls brightened the football and basketball season with their pep and vitality at the games and the pep rallies. Sitting on the megaphone in their blue and gray costumes are Sally Miller, Shirley Sherrard, Beverly Danison, Eileen Menzer, Anne Matthews, Betty Roy, and Ann Chamberlain.

The cheerleaders who cheered at the reserve basketball games, football homecoming game, pep rallies, and will be the official yellers for "Hurray for South High" next season are Marty DeCaminada, Marty Greeno, Nancy Johnson, Maud Pennington, Irene Bajus, and Beverly Weakley.

TRACK TEAM

A salute to Coach Bob Lewis, who led the Bulldog track team to a runners-up position in the City League last spring with seven wins, one loss, and one tie, losing to Central and tying East. Besides being runners-up in the City League, South was runners-up in the District Meets and came in sixth place at the State Meet held at Ohio State University.

In '53 our South High baseball team were runners up in the City Baseball League with an eight win, four loss season. This year's team was headed by Benny Wright, 1st base; John Frank, 2nd base; Dan Holtz, 3rd base; Bill Green shortstop; Pete Smerles, leftfield; Jerry Dover, centerfield; John Otto, rightfield; Kenny Webb, catch; Bill Wardle, pitch and catcher; Frank Howard, pitch and leftfield.

At the time of publication, the '54 record was:

South—0	North—3
South—2	Aquinas—9
South—1	St. Charles—3
South—2	West—4

Sam Pointer broadjumps 20'10"

Sammy Pointer this year proved himself to be outstanding in track as well as in basketball; in fact, he earned the nickname of "Jesse Owens of South High."

At the time the Lens went to press, he had broken three records—shot put, 48'9"; broad jump, 22'10"; and high jump 6'1⅝".

Which is stronger?

IT'S the one on the right because it's a door of an American home. No one can get through without permission. Not even a policeman, unless he has a search warrant.

Here, in America, your right to freedom from search without warrant is guaranteed by The Constitution itself.

How different behind the iron curtain! There, the people have no such protection. And even a solid oak door, strong enough to guard a fortress, can't keep out the secret police. When they want in they get in, eventually, even if they have to use a battering ram. But the flimsiest screen door in America can keep out the police unless they have a search warrant.

Because we Americans take our rights for granted, it's hard to believe that there are "pinkos" and fellow-travelers amongst us who want to take away our freedom from search without warrant. It's just part of their plan to steal all our rights, like the right to own property, the right to work wherever we please, the right to vote secretly and all the rest.

The best way to protect a right is to use it. So if you ever hear anyone come out in favor of permitting arbitrary search and seizure on some pretext or other, set him straight! Remind him that freedom from search without warrant is a right guaranteed every American by The Constitution.

Remember, they're your rights, so treat them right!

DO YOU KNOW YOUR RIGHTS?

As Americans, we have the greatest freedom and the highest standard of living in the world. Help keep it that way by knowing your rights and guarding them well. Some of them are:

Freedom of worship
Right to secret ballot
Right to know how your union spends your dues*
Freedom of speech
Freedom of the press
Right to criticize officials
Right to know salaries of your union officers*
Freedom from search without warrant
Right to petition government for redress of grievances
Right to know if your union officers are Communists*
Right to know how your union is run*
Right to speedy and public trial by jury
Right to help of a lawyer
Right to hear your employer's side of disagreements*
Right not to appear as a witness against yourself
Right to refuse to permit the "check-off" of union dues*
Right to go direct to your boss with a grievance*
Right to be presumed innocent until proved guilty
Freedom to own property
Right to work despite union jurisdictional disputes*
Freedom to work in any locality
Right to proper supervision of your union welfare funds*
Freedom to start and manage a business
Freedom to make a profit
Right not to be fired by union leaders*
Right to vote on company's best offer*

*These are rights you enjoy under the Taft-Hartley law.
This is a right enjoyed by members of United Steel Workers, C.I.O only when the Taft-Hartley law is invoked.

THEY'RE YOUR RIGHTS,
TREAT THEM RIGHT!
